

COMPANY

Documents required by any registered company for PAN Card Application in India are just a couple of things. This is so because companies do not have a huge list of address or identity proofs to choose from in order to apply for PAN.

Here are the two documents that are required by any company registered in India, for the purpose of PAN allocation.

- Copy of Registration Certificate issued by the Registrar of Companies

